Filled with natural light, the spacious living area is enhanced by sunlit doors with a desirable northerly aspect, creating a warm and welcoming space to relax throughout the day. The tidy kitchen is positioned for everyday practicality, while the flowing layout makes the home easy to enjoy whether you're entertaining guests or simply unwinding at home.

Three generous bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, with built-in robes offering excellent storage. The main bedroom is complemented by its own ensuite, while a family bathroom provides added convenience for children, guests or visiting family.

Outside, the private covered patio creates a lovely extension of the living space and provides plenty of room for relaxed entertaining, weekend lunches or quiet afternoons at home. A grassed area offers additional space for children or pets to enjoy, while the low-maintenance setting makes everyday living wonderfully easy.

The complex itself adds further lifestyle appeal, with a lovely swimming pool and communal entertaining area providing a welcoming space to relax, cool off or enjoy time with family and friends.
