HISTORIC "GALBALLY", A DALTON HOME IN CENTRAL ORANGE

The Dalton family were early pioneers of Orange and built many grand homes in Orange including Duntryleague and beautiful Galbally House located in sought after Byng Street and sitting on an impressive 3,998sqm block. This outstanding property built to exacting standards between 1917 and 1918 has only had three owners. It is time for the current custodians to move on and Galbally House is waiting for new owners to love and enjoy as a family home or explore other possibilities perhaps a sub-division or maybe a commercial venture (both subject to council approval)

- Absolute prime location in central Orange on a near acre of land
- Built by the Daltons, a pioneering family of Orange
- The current owners have meticulously maintained the originality
- Magnificent examples of ornate plaster ceilings and lead light windows
- Approximately 454 sqm internally plus verandahs of 208 sqm
- Double garage, tool sheds and an out-house a further 51 sqm
- Beautiful gardens with mature trees and full size lawn tennis court
