Up in the clouds! Well appointed off grid home with impressi

Perched high on a private ridge with sweeping west-facing views stretching all the way to Western Port Bay, this remarkable 68-acre (approx.) property delivers a rare combination of self-sufficient living, modern comfort, and jaw-dropping scale.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

The home itself is a polished, well designed 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom residence, fully off-grid and built to make the most of its position. The open-plan kitchen and living area is warm and inviting, anchored by a wood fire and walls of glass that frame the rolling hills beyond. Step outside onto the wraparound deck and watch the sun set- this is a view that doesn't get old.

But it's not just the house that impresses. The colossal 18m x 12m shed is a standout in its own right. Part of the shed is currently configured for entertaining, but it is just as well suited to caravan, boat or machinery storage. Whether it's weekend gatherings or simply extra space to spread out, this shed does it all.

Surrounding the homestead, the land rolls out across approximately 68 acres of Gippsland's finest elevated countryside, complete with cattle yards, creeks, 3 dams and more...

This is elevated country living at its finest: privacy, self-sufficiency and one of the best views money can buy.
