Capitalising on a corner block, every inch of this refined home has been intelligently designed to merge family connection with spaces to relax and unwind. Timber-styled flooring and a neutral palette underpin a contemporary coastal aesthetic, with open-plan living and dining and a large separate media room providing the space families desire. A premium kitchen overlooks the open-plan zone, boasting plenty of storage courtesy of a huge walk-in pantry and streamlined joinery. Quality appliances include a Smeg gas cooktop and dual Smeg pyrolytic ovens whilst breakfast bar seating adorns a huge stone island.

Wall to wall glazing and glass sliding doors provide the perfect connection between indoors and out, guiding you to covered and tiled alfresco entertaining. Generously sized for both lounging and dining, there is easy connection to the fenced rear, intelligently landscaped with low-maintenance tropical greenery and a shaded play zone for the kids.

Four carpeted bedrooms each provide built-in storage with the separate media room offering scope to have a fifth bedroom if desired. The master bedroom enjoys a large walk-in robe as well as a luxuriously sized ensuite, stylishly appointed with large dual vanity, glass shower and freestanding bath. The main bathroom also shows off a refined finish and includes a separate bath. Additional features include a large separate laundry, ducted air-conditioning, ceiling fans, security screens, security cameras, solar electricity with Tesla battery and double remote garage with Tesla EV fast charger.

Reinforcing its boundless appeal, this beautiful home enjoys a supreme position with prime access to meandering nature reserve and walkways. Numerous parkland, playgrounds, shopping, dining and transport options are at your door whilst Gainsborough State School is also within walking distance.
