

66 Attunga St, Attunga, NSW 2345

Sold - $300,000

House 2  1

Charming cottage with Potential in Serene Village Setting

Discover a unique opportunity to own a piece of history with this character-filled home, over 100 years old, nestled in a picturesque village just 20 minutes from Tamworth. This property is perfect for those looking to restore a classic home while enhancing its value.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Timeless Charm and appeal the home features original architectural details that tell a story of its rich history, offering a captivating canvas for your renovation dreams.

The property is divided into two blocks, all under one title, providing flexibility for future development or expansion.

This home offers potential for modern updates while preserving its historical essence.

Situated in a quaint village, you can enjoy the tranquillity of rural life while being conveniently close to the amenities of Tamworth.

- With a little love and attention, this home has the potential to significantly increase in value
- Large block with room to add another dwelling or outdoor activities
- Proximity to local shops, schools, and community services
- A welcoming community atmosphere with friendly neighbours

This property is a rare find for those looking to blend history with modern living. Don't miss out on the chance to breathe new life into this home.

If you're curious about the specific features of the home and would like to explore the possibilities, reach out to arrange your inspection.

Listed By

Gavin Knee
Phone: (02) 67661411
Mobile: 0427 669 151

