Peaceful Hill Top Cottage on a Spacious, Leafy Block

66 Cumberteen Street, Hill Top NSW 2575

Set on a generous 1,216 m² block in the peaceful village of Hill Top, this welcoming three-bedroom home offers a lovely blend of comfort, privacy and potential. Surrounded by established greenery and set back from the street, it's a place where you can settle in, update over time or create the country escape you've been dreaming of.

What makes this property truly special is its location. Hill Top is known for its friendly community feel, tree-lined streets and relaxed, rural atmosphere. Here, you can enjoy the best of quiet village living while still being close to everything you need - including a local primary school, general store, cafés, bakery, chemist and playgrounds. Nature lovers will appreciate the nearby walking trails, bushland outlooks and easy access to the surrounding Southern Highlands landscapes.

Larger townships such as Mittagong, Bowral and Tahmoor are just a short drive away, giving you convenient access to shopping, dining, transport and essential services, all while being able to return home to peace and quiet.

Whether you're looking for your first home, a cosy weekender, or a property with room to grow and improve, 66 Cumberteen Street offers a warm welcome and wonderful future potential in a location that's truly hard to beat.
