Step through the front door and the warmth of rich timber flooring immediately draws you into the main living area. Designed with both everyday living and entertaining in mind, this generous space is filled with natural light from a large window and supported by ample lighting throughout. Air conditioning provides year-round comfort, whether you're settling in for a quiet evening or hosting friends and family.

The adjoining kitchen is designed around practicality, with ample storage, a dishwasher, oven and useful pantry all within easy reach. From here, the kitchen counter creates a natural connection to the main dining area, providing plenty of space to gather around the table and enjoy meals together.

Further through the home, five bedrooms provide flexibility for families, guests or additional uses, with four featuring built-in cupboards and carpeted floors. Two of the bedrooms also feature ceiling fans, while the master bedroom benefits from its own air conditioning for added comfort.

The recently renovated bathroom introduces modern finishes to the home, providing a fresh and functional space to begin the day. An additional laundry adds further practicality to the floorplan.

Step outside and the home opens into an expansive 11m x 3m undercover alfresco area, creating an extension of the living space and a natural place to gather outdoors. Beyond, the large, well-kept backyard provides plenty of room to enjoy the outdoors, while the powered 6m x 6m double shed adds valuable space for storage, vehicles, hobbies or projects.

Whether you're entering the market, adding another property to your portfolio or looking for a home with the space to grow, 66 Wuth Street brings together a practical floorplan, established outdoor areas and a convenient Darling Heights position.
