The home is designed to capture light, sea breezes, and leafy outlooks from every room. Built with timeless appeal, it combines solid brick feature walls, warm timber accents, and open-plan living areas that connect seamlessly to the outdoors. The result is a home that feels relaxed, welcoming, and in complete harmony with its environment.

At the heart of the home sits a stylish kitchen fitted with stone benchtops, timber cabinetry, and a freestanding butcher's-block island. It's both practical and inviting, ideal for family gatherings, entertaining, or simply enjoying a quiet morning coffee overlooking the gardens. The adjoining dining and living zones offer a sense of openness while maintaining warmth and character.

Accommodation comprises four generous bedrooms, including a main suite with an ensuite and private garden outlook. The secondary bedrooms are spacious and positioned to capture natural light. A well-appointed main bathroom, laundry, and ample storage complete a layout suited to families, couples, or those seeking a peaceful retreat.

Surrounded by established trees and native bushland, the property offers complete privacy with plenty of open space for future landscaping, shedding, or outdoor improvements (STCA). Enjoy the calm of coastal bushland living while remaining close to the cafés, restaurants, and community amenities of South West Rocks.

If you've been searching for a home that provides space, serenity, and a genuine connection to nature, 67 Gap Beach Road, Arakoon is a must-inspect.
