Perfect Family Haven Meets Tranquil Bushland Living

Proudly presented by Nima Aliasgary 0424 999 399 and Awais Khan 0426 525 256 of Ray White Forest.

Positioned to perfection, this captivating home unfolds over its 695sqm block radiating with a real beaches vibe. The setting is special, nestled at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac street and embracing a stunning vista over the surrounding national park. Outdoor living is central to the flowing design that features expansive decks plus a large rear entertainer's terrace with a built-in barbeque. The gourmet kitchen pairs stylish stone benchtops with an induction cooktop and a large island bench. Beckoning summer fun is the private pool that rests within the garden. The home is bright, fresh, and airy, providing a scene of greenery from every room and excellent separation between living and bedroom spaces. Five bedrooms spill over two levels, easily accommodating multi-generational living, providing an option for a home office or separation of downstairs and upstairs. A further highlight is the two generous master retreats, both with an ensuite, robes, and direct access to one of the decks. The home's quality updates make it a move-in-ready opportunity and a wonderful retreat. This popular part of Forestville enjoys easy access to the bus, Forestville village, Forestway Shopping Centre, Forestville Public School, Killarney Heights High School, and Chatswood.
