Positioned within the Central Business (CB) zoning, the site offers exceptional flexibility for redevelopment, investment, or owner-occupation. This is a unique chance to control a significant slice of Hartley Street with the option to capitalise on its commercial heritage or shape a new chapter in the Alice Springs town centre.

Property Breakdown:

- 68 Hartley Street (Lot 129) – Currently vacant and leased as overflow parking for a rental car company
- 72 Hartley Street (Lot 130) – Formerly home to the iconic Overlanders Steakhouse, with existing restaurant infrastructure including spacious dining areas, kitchen facilities, and amenities.
- 76 Hartley Street (Lot 131) – Known locally as Tuncks Store, this character-filled Heritage Place includes a historic façade and a building previously repurposed for a car rental office and vehicle servicing.

All three sites are 1,230sqm each, delivering a combined 3,690sqm land parcel with excellent street presence and development scope.

Key Features:

- Prime CBD location with high visibility and foot traffic
- Heritage listing on Lot 131 offers a unique opportunity to blend history with modern use
- Strong potential for hospitality, retail, commercial or mixed-use redevelopment (STCA)

Whether you're an investor, developer, or business looking for a flagship location, this rare three-title holding is not to be missed.
