Features:-

- As the summer breeze kisses your face and reminds you to take time out and breathe in life, you will be glad you made the right decision
- Rarely do beachside homes offering such accommodation become available
- The home offers five plus bedrooms and has two living spaces to cater for that game of scrabble while the kids watch Dora the Explorer
- Two large bedrooms offer loft style areas and access to the rear deck while the master bedroom also incorporates a great modern en-suite
- The timber kitchen offers so much storage and ease of working, even the fussiest chef will be glad to create there
- Designed by an architect, this beautiful home is gracious in street appeal and when you step inside you see the ocean's influence on style
- The master ceilings mimic nature's power and beauty as they curve in a wave like motion
- The backyard is a great size and offers so much room to enjoy the established garden, and play any number of ball sports
- Enjoy lunch on the expanse of deck as you admire your kids having the time of their life, then pick up your towels, beach ball and sand bucket and walk two minutes to your beach
- With such a location comes primary and high schools a short stroll away, Nicholson park, quality cafes and shops, surf club and cycle track so close, you will be glad you made the move...
