The light-filled open-plan living and dining area followed by bedrooms that flow seamlessly to private balconies, capturing iconic Canberra outlooks and creating the perfect setting to relax or entertain.

The sleek kitchen is beautifully finished with stone benchtops, quality appliances, and generous storage, combining style and practicality.

Both bedrooms are well-proportioned and include built-in wardrobes and their own private balcony access, offering additional light, airflow, and uninterrupted views. The central bathroom is finished with contemporary fittings and clean modern lines.

Beyond the apartment itself, residents enjoy access to an impressive suite of resort-style amenities, including a fully equipped gym, dedicated yoga studio, rooftop swimming pool, landscaped entertaining areas, event/function room, and even a dog wash bay, delivering true inner-city luxury and convenience.

Located just moments from Canberra Centre, ANU, light rail, cafés, restaurants, and Lake Burley Griffin, this apartment offers a lifestyle that is both connected and refined.

Vacant and ready to move straight in, this is city living at its finest.
