Gone Fishing

Offered to the market for the first time is this full brick home set on the edge of Bomaderry creek with your own jetty.

The large lounge has sliding doors that open onto the top veranda taking in the summer breeze and both the upstairs bedrooms have built in robes. Downstairs is a second bathroom, an extra large garage and several workshop areas.

Located in the rear yard is a delightful boat shed with drive through access to the creek.

All this plus much more on a 1012m2 block all within an easy walk or boat trip of the shoalhaven river.
