Beyond an impressive fenced frontage lined by Frangipani trees, double doors open into an immaculate interior boasting the results of gorgeous upgrades! Timber-styled flooring brings a timeless coastal aesthetic into a light-filled layout offering a large separate media room, airy lounge, spacious dining and air-conditioned family and meals. Taking centre stage with a spectacular upgrade, the kitchen is framed by sleek joinery with exceptional storage complemented by quality appliances and expansive stone; a huge waterfall island perfect for easy entertaining.

There is no better place to enjoy your summer than outside where a massive in-ground swimming pool delivers resort relaxation along with a waterfall and poolside lounging. The fenced yard is a childhood paradise with the inclusion of a cubby house whilst entertainers will absolutely delight in the large weather-protected gazebo, complete with built-in BBQ kitchen!

Maintaining good privacy from the living zones, four built-in bedrooms are each comfortably carpeted and include air-conditioning and ceiling fans. The master has a walk-in robe and large ensuite with dual vanity and spa bath whilst the family are serviced by a pristine bathroom with superb vanity storage and separate bath.

Additional features include a separate laundry, large solar electricity system and double remote garage with additional shaded driveway parking. Capitalising on the corner block position, those wanting to accommodate a caravan or boat will love the second gated driveway with shade sail and concrete pad!

A well-regarded family neighbourhood, this location is sought-after for its proximity to amenities whilst maintaining a leafy tranquility. Parkland is numerous whilst just a few minutes away are large shopping and dining precincts, schooling choices, bus, rail and access to the M1.
