House 3  1

All this could be yours!

Set on the high side of the street affording views northwards this solid timber home is much more than initially meets the eye. Enter from front veranda to pleasant open plan living and dining with large kitchen looking out onto rear deck separated by breakfast bar. Hall past laundry and downstairs wc leads out onto rear covered deck with gas bbq which provides tranquil area for relaxing or entertaining. Steps lead to slightly raised courtyard style garden. Three large bedrooms (BIW's in each) are serviced by main bathroom and separate wc, with access to the front balcony from the main bedroom. To complete the package stairs from the main bedroom lead to the loft/study/retreat which runs the length of the home and provided the ideal parents escape. Convenient to local schools and shops, on public transport routes and currently rented for $430/week this home is a solid investment or ideal home for those seeking a home with character.
