The generous open-plan living and dining areas flow seamlessly through floor-to-ceiling glass doors to a sunlit balcony, providing the perfect setting to relax and enjoy the peaceful harbour outlook. At the heart of the home, the designer kitchen makes a striking statement with premium Caesarstone surfaces, elegant brass tapware, an induction cooktop with integrated exhaust, top-of-the-line Bosch appliances and an integrated French-door refrigerator with convenient pull-out freezer drawer. Both bedrooms are well proportioned and feature custom-built wardrobes, while the main bedroom enjoys the added convenience of an ensuite. Both bathrooms are luxuriously finished with full-height tiling and sophisticated brass tapware details.

Further highlights include bespoke joinery and custom storage throughout, air conditioning in the living area, a separate internal laundry and level lift access to a secure basement car space. Residents also enjoy access to the building's swimming pool and landscaped gardens. Perfectly positioned moments from Macleay Street's celebrated cafés, restaurants and boutique shopping, as well as harbourside parklands, Kings Cross Station and city transport, this exceptional residence captures the very best of cosmopolitan Potts Point living with the tranquillity of a harbourside setting.
