Original details set this home apart, including an ornate ceiling, French doors opening from the bedroom through to the sunroom, and stained-glass windows in the living room, giving the apartment a distinctive character rarely found in this price bracket.

The king-sized bedroom comes complete with new built-ins, while the north-east aspect floods the home with excellent natural light throughout the day. The sunroom offers a versatile extra space, ideal as a home office or a spot to unwind while taking in the leafy outlook beyond. With only one common wall, the apartment enjoys an added layer of peace and privacy that's hard to find this close to the beach.

This combination of character, light, and position makes it a standout opportunity, whether you're an investor after a quality asset in a tightly held pocket, or a first home buyer ready to secure your place in one of Sydney's most sought-after beachside suburbs.
