Townhouse 2 1

Not Your Average Townhouse. Not Even Close.

Some townhouses are built to tick boxes. Two bedrooms, a kitchen, a living room, and just enough space to swing a cat. This isn't one of them.

Tucked away in a small, beautifully landscaped complex in the heart of Pimlico, this townhouse has something that is becoming increasingly difficult to find. Space. Proper, generous, liveable space. And plenty of it.

Step inside and the ground floor opens into a comfortable living and dining area, complemented by a modern, spacious kitchen with room to do more than simply reheat last night's takeaway.

There's also a separate laundry, a downstairs powder room and a private paved entertaining area. Perfect for a long Sunday lunch, a few friends and absolutely no intention of going anywhere.

Upstairs, things get even more interesting.

Two exceptionally generous bedrooms, both with their own balconies. The main bedroom enjoys a walk-in wardrobe, while the shared bathroom offers the luxury of both a separate shower and bathtub.

And then there's the mezzanine.

A clever additional space with access to its own balcony. Home office? Reading retreat? Second sitting area? That's entirely up to you. It's the sort of flexibility you don't often find in a two-bedroom townhouse.

New carpet throughout and full air conditioning make things comfortable from day one.

Outside, there's a secure front courtyard, generous secure storage within the carport and a private entertaining space where you can enjoy the outdoors without spending your weekends maintaining it.

The complex itself is another pleasant surprise. Beautifully landscaped tropical gardens surround an inviting inground swimming pool, offering all the enjoyment of
