With a history of successful tenancies, this space has housed a thriving butcher & takeaway as well as a buzzing barber shop—just to name a few. The arcade itself has welcomed a diverse range of industries, including hospitality, retail, and personal services, making it a proven hotspot for business success.

Currently set up as a butcher & takeaway outlet, the shop offers flexibility to be easily adapted for retail, boutique services, or professional office use. Surrounded by long-standing, well-established businesses and a constant flow of pedestrians, it's a golden opportunity to be part of Forster's dynamic commercial scene.

Whether you're launching a new venture or looking to relocate to a more prominent location, this space ticks all the boxes for visibility, versatility, and potential.

Contact our office today to discuss this incredible opportunity or arrange a private inspection.
