Long Established Oyster Business!

Selling both quantity and quality products, this presents a fantastic opportunity to own a well-established oyster farm in the picturesque seaside town of Tuncurry Forster, on the Mid North Coast.

This is an excellent chance for entrepreneurs, families, partners or anyone seeking a lifestyle change away from the pressures, noise and traffic congestion of the big city life!

Having been operating for many years, the farm produces high quality Wallis Lake rock oysters, with the option to sell retail on-site, as well as wholesale. The waters around Wallis Lake are pristine and known for their quality.

The well-equipped farm boasts a large production shed with roller door and toilet facilities, making this a versatile space for perhaps an eatery or retail business.

This business also enjoys low overhead costs and generates great margins.

Features include:

- Well established and reputable oyster farm on Wallis Lake
- Fully-equipped shed with an undercover area and opening room.
- Large workshop area with machinery included.
- Modern plant and machinery, (Stock can be purchased but not included in price*).
- Massive growth potential, terrific margins and low overhead costs.

NOTE: (Stock can be purchased but not included in price*) Price of stock will depend on valuation.
