Inside, beautiful Baltic pine floors, high ceilings and classic period details create an inviting sense of warmth and character. The character-filled kitchen combines traditional charm with modern functionality, while the generous living room features a striking decorative exposed-brick fireplace and plenty of natural light.

Set on a generous 971m² block, this charming home enjoys a wonderful sense of space around it, with an established front garden framed by magnificent, mature trees creating a scenic outlook.

This magnificent home, all just metres from the town of Garfield... placing shops, cafés, services and everyday conveniences right at your doorstep.

A rare combination of Edwardian elegance, substantial land, thoughtful improvements and an unbeatable location, this is a home with genuine character and plenty more to discover.
