Designed with family living in mind, the home features five bedrooms, all with built-in or walk-in robes. The oversized master suite has both his and hers walk-in robes and a luxurious ensuite with a double vanity. Plus, one of the bedrooms and a full bathroom are located downstairs, ideal for guests, older family members, or added flexibility for modern living.

There's plenty of space for everyone, with three generous living areas - a fully equipped home theatre, a rumpus room, and an inviting open-plan family and dining area complete with gas log fire, built-in cabinetry, and piped speakers for effortless entertaining.

The gourmet kitchen is beautifully appointed with waterfall stone benchtops, quality appliances, and a butler's pantry, offering both style and practicality. Step outside to the sheltered alfresco area, featuring an outdoor kitchen and stunning mountain views - the perfect place to relax or entertain year-round.

A private backyard provides a lovely garden space that's both low-maintenance and inviting, and the side access allows extra accommodation for the trailer, boat or caravan.

Packed with features and designed for versatile family living, this exceptional property is sure to impress even the fussiest of buyers.
