Classic Coastal Living Just Moments from the River & Beach

Welcome to Driftwood Cottage, a fully furnished original coastal home offering relaxed and peaceful living in one of Red Rock's quietest streets. Just a short stroll from the pristine river, the local general store and the bowling club, this charming cottage provides an inviting space for those seeking a slower, seaside lifestyle. The home sits on a fully fenced block and features a bright sunroom that's perfect for morning coffees, as well as a cozy central lounge ideal for winding down at the end of the day. With three comfortable bedrooms, the cottage is ready for you to move straight in and enjoy the easy pace of coastal living.

Only minutes from both the river and the beach, the location offers endless opportunities for swimming, paddling, fishing, sunset walks and enjoying the natural beauty Red Rock is known for. The community is warm and welcoming, with everything you need close by, yet still maintaining the calm and simplicity that makes the area so special.

The home is fully furnished, and the tenant is responsible for all utilities, including water and electricity.
