You can't help falling in love!

You really don't see the potential of this family home, until you step inside.

The romance commences when you enter the L shaped formal lounge and dining room (all with new carpet). Then you walk through the beautiful galley style kitchen which then opens on to the every day living. From here you can either go out onto the sundrenched pergola/BBQ area which overlooks the ever inviting in ground pool and near level grassed area.

If you wish to stay inside you make your way through the study room downstairs to the massive teenagers retreat. This can be used as a 3rd bedroom and or 3rd living area. Your teenage son or daughter will never want to leave home and they will be the envy of their friends. They can have a double bed, lounge area, and Tv/study desk all set up in this room, what more can you ask for. You can even access the rear yard from this room, undercover area for those rainy days and also access to an external storage room for the lawn mower and the camping equipment.

This home ticks all the boxes for me, how about you give me a call and come have a look for yourself. You wont be disappointed.
