PRIME PACIFIC HIGHWAY EXPOSURE – OPPOSITE WYONG STATION

Positioned in a prominent location along the Pacific Highway, this substantial two-storey commercial premises offers approximately 310m² of versatile space with excellent exposure to both vehicle and pedestrian traffic.

Formerly occupied as a butcher, the property includes a well-positioned shopfront with direct Pacific Highway frontage, together with an existing cool room, preparation area and practical rear loading access.

The location is a standout feature. Positioned directly opposite Wyong Train Station and within the heart of the Wyong Town Centre, the property benefits from strong daily passing traffic, high visibility and easy access for customers, staff and deliveries.

Rear dock loading access and off-street parking further improve the functionality of the premises, making it well suited to food-related businesses, retail, showroom, service-based operators or other commercial uses, subject to approval.

Property highlights include:

- *Approx. 310m² over two levels
- *High-profile Pacific Highway frontage
