Your tenant is not just a business - it's a passion project that is deeply rooted in the local community and is the most awarded cafe in the Mid Coast region. It is now your chance to own this freehold property. The property consists of the cafe shop front, a three bedroom residence behind and a garden alfresco setting complete with a rustic timber stage designed for live music allowing endless entertaining/function opportunities.

Set deep within the CBD of the historical township of Wingham, this building is set on an approximate 670m2 block and is conveniently placed for high foot traffic and located within easy walking distance to various specialty shops and boutiques.

There is a 5 x 5 year lease in place at $52,000 per annum plus outgoings.
