DAG SHEEP STATION - NUNDLE, NSW

A remarkable rural retreat, award-winning events destination and exceptional lifestyle and tourism opportunity.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Set within a peaceful and idyllic valley, just 10 kilometres south of the historic village of Nundle, DAG Sheep Station is a truly unique property offering an extraordinary combination of rural charm, tourism accommodation, lifestyle and established events appeal.
Located less than an hour's drive from the New England regional city of Tamworth and approximately six hours northwest of Sydney, DAG Sheep Station is ideally positioned to attract visitors while providing the tranquillity and beauty of a private country setting.
Highly regarded as a multi-award-winning wedding and events venue, DAG Sheep Station has established a distinctive reputation as a destination where guests can celebrate, relax and experience the best of country hospitality. The property features large-capacity tourism accommodation, providing an exceptional platform for weddings, functions, retreats, celebrations and group stays. DAG Sheep Station will be sold with a considerable list of inclusions so the new owners can continue conduct ongoing event options straight away.
At the heart of the property is a spectacular five-bedroom main homestead, beautifully positioned to take full advantage of the surrounding landscape. With its elevated setting and outlook across the meandering Wombramurra Creek, the homestead provides an idyllic country residence and an impressive focal point for the property yet set privately from the events infrastructure.
The combination of natural beauty, established tourism infrastructure, accommodation and event facilities creates a property of considerable versatility and appeal. Whether continuing the established wedding and events enterprise, expanding the tourism offering, or simply embracing an exceptional rural lifestyle which incorporates 75 acres / 30 Hectares of prime pasture improved country with new fencing, ideal for livestock or equine pursuits.
DAG Sheep Station presents an opportunity unlike any other.
With its picturesque valley setting, tranquil atmosphere, proximity to Nundle and Tamworth, and established reputation as a destination venue.

DAG Sheep Station is more than a property - it is an experience.
