

Alstonville, NSW 2477, address available on request

Sold - 4/06/2010

Unit 2 1

NEAT, SWEET & COMPLETE

This unit has 'great' written all over it!

Start with the great location, easy walking distance to Alstonville's main street or the schools.

Great condition, after being freshly painted, brand new carpet and air-conditioning.

And finally, a great opportunity to secure your new home or investment as the vendor is committed to sell and move on.

The two bedrooms are well sized and both have built-in robes.

A private rear courtyard is a real added bonus as is the size of the living area.

This is a great little unit!
