House 4 2

More luxury and space than you could possibly imagine

This executive residence offers quality living at its best and every room has an outstanding feature of its own.

The home is elevated and has a wide protective verandah that runs along the front and wraps around the northern side of the property.

The formal lounge room is located at the front of the house and there are four oversized double bedrooms, the master suite is huge and the walk in robe & ensuite have to be seen to be believed, the 2nd and 3rd bedroom also feature spacious walk in robes.

The main bathroom is stylish and tastefully outfitted with timber vanity, large shower and bath. The galley style laundry has as many cupboards as most kitchens these include two double linen cupboards and bench space that runs the whole length of the room. The home has been freshly painted and has quality tiles and carpets and decadent curtains throughout.

The stunning wide central hall runs down the centre of the home and opens out to massive open plan living area that will take your breath away. The Tasmanian oak timber kitchen is impressive and includes an abundance of cupboard and bench space with quality stainless steel appliances including wall oven, glass hotplates and dishwasher. The gigantic walk in pantry is like nothing you have ever seen before. Adjacent to the kitchen is the dining area. The spacious family area is on the northern end of the home and has double glass doors that open out to another massive covered area ideal for outdoor entertaining.

At the rear of the block is a 4 car garage and work shop with remote control doors shelving and a handy third toilet and vanity. The established trees and landscaped lawns and gardens are easy to care for with the rainwater tank and automated sprinkler systems.

If you are after a prestige property to call home, this is the one for you.
