Something For All Investors First Home Buyers or Renovators

Positioned in a central location and within walking distance to shops, public transport and other local amenities.

This two bedroom clad tile home has loads of character and offers the right person the potential to convert this home to a three or possible four bedroom home, with minimal work.

Timber floors carry you through this property and the bathroom has had some money spent on it. The lounge room is a generous size.

With plenty of side access and a good size garage, the backyard is flat and certainly offers the space required for most peoples needs.

With loads of character and a great asset to anyone's portfolio, put this property on your shopping list today.

Inspections are by appointment, so phone to secure your time to view.
