Easy Care Living in Central Location

This delightful, three bedroom home, is ideal for those of you looking for a worry free lifestyle. Designed to need little maintenance, both the home and small garden are easy to look after enabling you to spend more time enjoying all that Callala and its beaches have to offer. The open plan living area and kitchen are extremely functional. For added convenience there is a second bathroom in the laundry. The home also has a single garage with internal access which is handy. The backyard is compact with still enough room for a veggie patch and a family pet. The location of this property is great with the white sands of Jervis Bay being just a five minute walk away and the shops just around the corner. Also within easy walking distance are the school and community facilities.
