Rural Land

PRODUCTIVE RURAL ESCAPE

Situated just 21km west of Uralla, this partially cleared property of approximately 377.6 hectares (933 acres) has the potential for a variety of enterprises including the establishment of a productive grazing property or a rural lifestyle block with an abundance of native flora and fauna.

Approximately one quarter of the property is cleared for grazing while the balance is open timbered grazing on the undulating granite soils rising to timbered hilly areas with rock outcrops. Water is from four dams and double frontage to Reedy Creek. The boundary fence is stock proof while the the western boundary is new. Timber is mainly Stringy Bark plus red gum and box.

Included is an old woolshed and a dilapidated house.

Open for Inspection
