Wherever you choose to live, you want to feel connected to people, nature and community. Nestled within the thriving suburb of Munno Para, Mandorla Estate puts you in easy reach of everything you need. A stone's throw from the Northern Expressway, you're just 38 minutes from the Adelaide CBD. And in the other direction, a short drive to the beautiful Barossa Valley for weekend winery visits with neighbours and friends.

This is a place where young families can grow together in a safe, friendly environment with play parks, wetland walks, obstacle courses and BBQ areas. There are public and private primary and secondary schools to choose from including St Columba College and John Hartley School. And nearby, the bustling town centre is brimming with shops, cafes and restaurants new and old.

Find a place to live. A place where things happen. Great things. Fun things. Beautiful things you can see, hear and feel. Things that move you. Things that become a part of you. Find a place for the things you love.
