Access is simple via a gazetted road, and the land is fully fenced and cattle-ready ideal for those looking to run livestock or simply enjoy wide open space. The block is thoughtfully varied, comprising approximately one third cleared short grass, one third mulched pasture, and one third natural bushland dotted with native grass trees, creating a diverse and visually appealing landscape.

Whether you are dreaming of building your forever home, establishing a hobby farm, or securing a tranquil weekend retreat, this is a true blank canvas ready for your vision. The elevated position not only enhances the views but also provides excellent house site options to take full advantage of the surrounding scenery.

Conveniently located, the property sits within easy reach of key regional centres:

- 8 km to Blackbutt
- 15 km to Yarraman
- 36 km to Nanango
- 60 km to Kingaroy

This is a rare opportunity to embrace a genuine tree change lifestyle space, serenity, and spectacular views, all within a comfortable drive of town amenities.
