Entering on the lower level, you're immediately greeted by a large workshop, providing an exceptional amount of practical space. Whether you're a tradesperson, hobbyist, home renovator or simply looking for somewhere to store the extras, this area offers plenty of possibilities.

Also on this level is a versatile rumpus or man cave, creating a fantastic additional living zone that can be tailored to suit your needs. Add to this the separate utility room and single lock-up garage, and the lower level offers an uncommon level of flexibility for townhouse living.

Heading upstairs, the home opens into a spacious open-plan living, dining and kitchen area, creating the central hub of the property. The kitchen is positioned to connect naturally with the dining and living spaces, making the layout ideal for relaxed everyday living or entertaining guests.

The living area flows through to the private balcony, providing a pleasant outdoor extension of the main living space.

Accommodation is thoughtfully positioned on the upper level, with three well-proportioned bedrooms offering plenty of room for family, guests or a dedicated home office. The master bedroom enjoys the added benefit of a walk-in robe, while the remaining bedrooms are conveniently serviced by the central bathroom.

The bathroom is well appointed with both a shower and bathtub, while the separate toilet adds an extra level of practicality for busy households. A dedicated laundry and additional linen and storage space complete the upper-level layout.

With its generous floor plan, multiple living zones and substantial workshop space, this townhouse offers far more flexibility than the traditional low-maintenance property. Whether you're a first-home buyer, downsizer, investor or someone simply looking for additional space, there is plenty here to accommodate changing needs.

Position, space and versatility come together at 3/19 Noll Street, Kearneys Spring. A townhouse that offers the convenience of low-maintenance living without compromising on usable space, this is one that deserves to be inspected to truly appreciate what it has to offer.
