Rainforest Magic steps into the Sea

Imagine being a small child on a swing under a huge rainforest canopy in your own backyard then minutes later playing on the sands of one of the South Coast's most beautiful beaches. This is the lifestyle this purpose built timber home will give to your family.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Bathed in sunlight and affording the vast luxury of privacy whilst overlooking the coast or whale watching from your own open plan living area with high ceilings, polished floors throughout and bi-folds opening onto huge front entertaining decks, capturing soft summer breezes on the warm summer nights.

Well designed kitchen with European appliances and stone bench tops adjoin an open plan dining area. Two huge bedrooms on the lower level with built-in's, main bathroom and rumpus room opening onto the rear deck and lush established gardens. The play areas set under a huge rainforset canopy create a truly unique setting.

Upper level comprises three more over sized bedrooms, second bathroom and office/parents retreat with magical coastal views. Reverse cycle air conditioning throughout, wood burner, plantation shutters and an alarm system. Lower level comprises huge double garage, workshop, copious storage and parking for up to five cars.

This magical setting is built for the family and entertaining, truly a home for the discerning buyer and one of the best Austinmer has to offer. Not a cent to spend and only minutes from beaches, cafes, train station and schools.

Don't miss the opportunity to view this beautiful home, open Saturday 26th April 10:30am - 11:30am or by appointment. Meet Karen Egan on site or call 0447 271 118.
