

12/55 Mountain Rd, Austinmer, NSW 2515

Sold - 12/12/2014

Townhouse 3  2  1

TROPICAL, COASTAL & CENTRAL

Drive through the security gates down the drive and arrive at this spacious, light three bedroom townhouse. Tucked away in a tranquil oasis surrounded by tropical gardens, exceptionally well located mid-way between Austinmer and Thirroul. A ten minute wander will get you to blue waves, good coffee and retail therapy. However a crisp cold Semillon and the sizzle of the BBQ in your leafy and private garden may keep you close to home.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Very liveable as it is with a beautifully refurbished bathroom, other areas provide plenty of scope to get creative and make your mark. Spend your days on DIY and then soak away in the divine tub in the bathroom. With a superb location and reasonable price range this home offers opportunity to add value to your home and life.

- Vibrant and bright the lounge features floating floorboards and a green view out to the back garden
- Country style kitchen with dishwasher & gas cooking is conveniently open to the dining area
- The garden is a sunny palm filled haven that will lull you into complete relaxation
- Parents retreat you may never leave with its walk in robe, private balcony and ensuite
- Two other generous bedrooms feature leafy views and built-in robes
- An enormous bathroom is more than a little fancy featuring a huge tub with backrest
- Single garage with internal access makes loading and unloading the car a breeze
- Commute with ease, Austinmer train station is only 10 minutes away and Thirroul Village not much further.

Listed By

Justin Sydenham
Phone: (02) 42673444
Mobile: 0417 330 229

