

2 Asquith St, Austinmer, NSW 2515

Sold - $1,150,000

House 4  2  2

Charming and timeless home with ocean vistas

Lifestyle - Magnificently set in a private world of tall timbers, lush native greenery and boasting indulgent ocean views, this enchanting home of individual character and design offers an elegant and exceptionally well considered environment that captivates to the full. Displaying bright interiors, high ceilings and deep-polished hardwood floors, the property strikes a confident street presence in a never-to-be-built-out position, only minutes to the local school, great beaches and sensational cafes all within one hour to Sydney.

Accommodation - Designed to accommodate a growing family with a mixture of distinctively generous living areas, the classically designed kitchen features abundant cupboard space and modern appliances, flowing to the separate living and dining rooms. The original, period-themed bathroom facilitates the two lower-level bedrooms, both featuring built-ins. Upstairs, the property enjoys a second bathroom presenting dual stone vanities and modern fittings, with the master boasting built-ins and a private deck overlooking stunning sea views.

Features - Of considered note is the impressively generous deck, offering idyllic alfresco dining events it sets a beguiling presence for friends and family with a sumptuous backdrop of coastline and native flora vistas. Other stylish features include leadlight windows, split heating/air conditioning, period light fittings, picture rails, substantial under-house storage and single carport. A property of history and personality, this unique offering presents an alluring prospect for those looking for something special.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Listed By

Amanda Moore
Phone: (02) 4268 9300
Mobile: 0414 450 830

Wendy Ristuccia
Phone: (02) 4268 9300
Mobile: 0408 404 070

