LOVE ME DO!

If you appreciate the finer things in life, you're going to absolutely love this waterfront reserve home.

As far as outlook, layout and finishes go, you'll be hard pressed to find better (especially in this price range!).

If you like the idea of a self-cleaning pool and a living area that transforms into a soundproof theatre room (complete with the appropriate sound and lighting), then this could be your next home.

If your new home has to have granite kitchen benchtops, outdoor kitchen (with built in BBQ) and super-sized double garage (to fit the boat or van), then this is most definitely your next home.

Immaculate inside and out with the current owners being the only owners, this is a move in and relax proposition - you won't want to miss this one (your other half may never forgive you!).
