Nestled in the popular Braitling area, this is a great location and house to be in all year round.

As you walk in, the property is open plan dining and living area which has a sliding door out to the side yard.

The kitchen is modern with gas cooking and plenty of bench and cupboard space. A window gives a good view into the side yard.

Down the hallway are four bedrooms which are all good sizes with reverse cycle air conditioning. The main features a walk-in robe and ensuite which has been recently renovated.

The family bathroom offers a good-sized bath and the toilet is separate. The yards are large and low maintenance.
