Popular resort style living is on offer here with some personal upgrades and bountiful inclusions from sturdy, stylish furnishings to the practicality of a decent sized food pantry. The typically "latticed stair railings" have been replaced with polished timber hardwoods and stainless steel balustrade cabling to give that hint of class. A rare bath awaits in the second bathroom for the end of those grueling days in the tropics or wander to one of the onsite lagoon pools or spas. The complex has 75% permanent occupation confirming the popularity of each Villa's size and this one faces outward to natural gardens for privacy. An ideal home, an ideal rental investment at $350+pw or lock and leave as your holiday getaway, even Air BnB it for income when not in use... All reasonable offers before EOFY will be submitted.
