

35 Molonglo St, Queanbeyan, NSW 2620

Sold - 9/04/2020

House 4  1

The Ideal Family Location

Perfectly situated for young or growing families seeking convenience to all amenities including great primary schools, this four bedroom beauty is an exceptional find. A comfortable home comprising dual living zones, it is located on large flat 1033sqm (approx.) block providing an easy walk to the CBD, river reserve and golf course!

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

All throughout this home you will find it is light and airy making it the perfect family home. Additional features include an original style kitchen with new island bench, plenty of bench space and gas cooking, separate lounge and dining areas with polished floors, gas heating to the lounge room, large fully enclosed backyard, a long drive way with plenty of room for your cars as well as an enclosed storage garage in the backyard.

If the current abode isn't your cup of tea, you may wish to explore the property's potential as a new home or dual occupancy site (subject to council approval).

Listed By
Jason Maxwell

