Residential Land

Very Rare - Vacant Block in Respected Location

Ah, now this is something different - very rare! This is a smaller sized block for easy living located in an older part of town, an established area of character homes and long term owners.

Close to everything, yet off the main traffic streets, Carrington St is a great place to live.

The 359sqm approx. block offers the opportunity for a wonderful home without all the maintenance required of a big block. This is a great block to build a first home, retirement home or an investment home.
