The kitchen has plenty of space to indulge your culinary skills, and the back patio has room for an outdoor setting. There is privacy all round, with the property fully fenced, so you can entertain in privacy.

There is abundant yard space when comparing similar properties, and it is a blank canvas, so you will be able to shape your garden according to your wishes.

It is the position that truly impresses. Not only is the location extremely quiet and private, but this Unit is situated close to the CBD and High School, within walking distance to Convenience Store and many other amenities. It really is too good to be true.
