Sold - 18/02/2020

House 4 3 2

A place to call home on prestigious Robe Tce!

Best Offer By Tuesday February 4th 12 Noon

Enjoy a lifestyle rarely found in the inner suburbs of Adelaide, with this impressive mid century modern family home enjoying an expansive 3251m2 slice of tightly held Medindie.

Park-like grounds reveal a roman style vine-covered arbor, gorgeous pond, a floodlit north-south tennis court, solar heated pool and a pool house currently used as a studio flanked by lemon-scented gardens and a wisteria-clad terrace to enjoy our Mediterranean summer.

Honouring 30 years of cherished family memories the home has had a meticulous 5 year renovation, led by its architect owner, celebrating classic 1960s vogue style.

Discover ornate 3m ceilings, cornices and wall sconces, rich Tasmanian Oak floors and joinery, Carrara marble atop every fireplace and each bathroom vanity. All 3 luxe bathrooms deliver contemporary chic.

The grand foyer with chandelier, sunlit spaces, and the regal procession of den to formal living to sitting room - each with panoramic picture windows affording views of gorgeous gardens that will truly enchant. This home is made for entertaining on a grand scale!

The massive eat in kitchen, overlooking the pool, is designed to impress the most avid entertainer with the butlers pantry offering excellent storage with room to spare. Adjacent, the elegant formal dining room with vintage silk wallpaper could also be the perfect family room, the choice is yours.

The superbly styled bedrooms of imposing proportions enjoy garden views, 2 with ensuites, plus an elegant powder room ideal for guests.

Imagine strolling to O'Connell Street, North Adelaide's dog parks and horse paddocks, with the Prospect Road precinct and Walkerville's shopping village in the wings and the city just minutes away.

Offered reluctantly for sale to finalise an estate, 13 Robe Terrace is not only a one-of-a-kind home, it's a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. It's a rare find that's worth the wait.
