From the bamboo flooring and blinds to the bathrooms, powder room and laundry - it's all been done for you and it feels fresh and light. The kitchen is grand and includes features like integrated lighting, stone benchtops and a huge island for the family to gather. The large master bedroom feels private and relaxing, and features a huge ensuite, complete with double shower and full bathtub - perfect for a soak.

There's a space for everyone including a games room, study, separate second lounge and two separate covered patios. The gardens are particularly impressive with lush green grass and thriving fruit trees - a real pleasure with the current climate conditions.

Of course, Monash is a popular Tuggeranong suburb, giving you quick access to South Point, Lake Tuggeranong, great schools and outdoor spaces. With main arterial roads close by, it's an easy journey to anywhere in Canberra.

This is the one you've been looking for! The space and quality on offer here will mean it won't last long. Make sure you view this home ASAP - contact Andrew Curren today!
