Built-in 1972, this solid brick and tile has plenty of charming features. Polished floor boards are on show through the living spaces and bedrooms, decorative ceiling trims can be appreciated in the open plan lounge/dining and white skirting trims are featured throughout.

As for living space, there is plenty on offer. An open plan living room takes in both the lounge and the dining, to the front of the home. A walkway from the dining gives access to the kitchen fitted with modern cooking appliances and a two-seater breakfast bar. A small living area sits off the kitchen providing a great option for a casual meals area or study nook. Off the back of the home rests a separate living area, perfect for use as a 4th bedroom, teenager's retreat or games room.
