

7 Aldershot St, Sunnybank, QLD 4109

Sold - 17/04/2020

House 5 5 2

SOLD BY EMILY XIONG

Glistening and glamorous, this sprawling two-storey home at the centre of it all is sure to impress with a plethora of lavish features within. With stunning feature tiles and wide open spaces, this home boasts a sleek gourmet kitchen, open-plan living and dining area that flows out to the gorgeous patio and tranquil backyard, and five bedrooms with all exquisite ensuites. In an excellent location, only a short drive away from Market Square, Sunnybank Plaza and Westfield Garden City, this exceptional home will dazzle investors and large families, whether nuclear or multi-generational.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

A short walk down the road and you could reach St Thomas More College, Sunnybank State School or Sunnybank State High School, making this an excellent spot for families with children. Close to numerous early learning centres, Sunnybank Private Hospital, local train stations, Our Lady of Lourdes Primary School and plenty of other amenities, this shimmering property has unrivalled convenience.

Outside this contemporary, designer abode is a lush low-maintenance lawn area, the fully-fenced yard providing the utmost security for you and your loved ones. A gated driveway leads up to the double lock-up garage where a lit-up entryway to the right leads you into the family lounge area within with its gleaming marble-look tiles.

This space is simply stunning, with ducted air-conditioning throughout, intricate pendant lights above and towering ceilings. A bamboo screen outside to the right provides privacy, a modern fireplace set into a tiled ledge offering warmth and comfort on cold winter nights. At the front there's even a handy study nook where the children can complete school projects or you can add the final touches to an important work assignment.

Past the elegant stairway with glass balustrade and timber steps, you walk through to the sprawling open-plan living and dining area with the same lavish tiles, a trendy kitchen to the right as well as a large decadent wine display cabinet with glass doors. The sleek kitchen itself features smooth navy blue cabinetry, white Caesarstone waterfall benchtops, a glass splash back and matte black tapware. This is a versatile and sophisticated space for home chefs, with two ovens, a walk-in Butler's pantry with kitchenette and dishwasher, integrated bar and gas stove.

Through wide bi-fold doors, the living and dining area seamlessly flows out onto the tiled patio with overheard fan, which overlooks the tranquil bamboo garden, bamboo fencing all around. An expansive area, this would be perfect for entertaining or weekend lounging as you take in the peaceful and private surrounds. Low-maintenance and convenient, apart from the bamboo garden and shady tree in this backyard, there are no gardens to maintain.

Listed By

Emily Xiong

Floorplan

