Embracing a magnificent lush outlook which is maximised by its north-easterly orientation, this dual level residence has been designed for year-round comfort and in/outdoor living. Completely tranquil and superbly private, its highly flexible floorplan can be adapted to suit a range of demands and family configurations.

Polished blackbutt floors are showcased throughout and the open plan main living area is warmed by a cosy fireplace. There are substantial all-weather decks on both levels which are undercover and well protected. An open timber top kitchen is well equipped with all appliances, while all four peaceful bedrooms provide built-ins and the master boasts deck access plus an ensuite.

The lower level bedroom can also function as a rumpus, teen retreat or guest accommodation. An oversized automatic double garage allows internal access and provides space for a workshop, plus additional off street parking is offered. Other features include a full main bathroom and abundance of storage.

Beautiful Pittwater, Careel Bay, Avalon village and the beach are all accessible in a matter of moments.
