

1222 Bulldog Rd, Bulldog, NSW 2469

Sold - 9/10/2020

Residential Land

River frontage, timber and gold prospecting! This 1140 acres

Beautiful timbered hills and valleys leading down to Timbarra River also known as Rocky River in full flight.

This block of land on Bulldog Road adjoins Bulldog Station and is approx 12km down Bulldog road on the right side. 1140 acres of beautiful untouched hills and valleys!

There are 3 old gold mine pits down near the river which were active many years ago and the views are to die for. Bulldog Rock is a large significant outcrop at the end of the property.

The property is also able to be accessed by the Old Rocky River Road and vehicle access is also possible to cross the river when it is low.

It is a wilderness retreat and abounds with many types of birds and reptiles especially in the valleys. There are Bellbirds throughout the property.

If you are a person who want virgin land and keeping the harmony of the bush and native animals this is for you.
